

FUN Ideas for Successful Fundraising!

- ✈ Email – ask all of your friends and family to support your fundraising efforts and ask them to email all of their friends and family!
- ✈ Email Signature – add a line to all outgoing email that states when the race is and a link to your personal fundraising webpage.
- ✈ Voice Mail – every time someone leaves a message they will hear that you are doing something great for LDAF! Tell them where to find your personal webpage online.
- ✈ Letters – send a personalized letter to your friends, family and business contacts asking for their support.
- ✈ Church/temple Bulletin – place an announcement in your church/temple bulletin letting the congregation know.
- ✈ Alumni Organizations – call your college/university and ask them to place an ad in the alumni newsletter asking for donations.
- ✈ Mow-a-thon – get your kids involved in helping you! Check ahead with your neighbors and ask if you can mow their lawn for a donation.
- ✈ Curse Jar – C'mon – everyone does it! Now make them pay for it. Leave a Curse Jar in your office or even better – your favorite bar! Every time someone says a bad word – make them leave a dollar.
- ✈ Auction off Dessert – have a pot luck lunch at work or church and ask everyone to bring a yummy home made dessert to be auctioned at the end.
- ✈ Pledge Jar – place a Pledge Jar on your desk to remind everyone that visits your office that you are doing something great!
- ✈ Pack Your Lunch – pack your lunch for a week and donate the money you would have spent going out every day.
- ✈ Bake Sale – ask family and friends to donate yummy baked goods and have a bake sale.
- ✈ Root Beer Float Fridays – make and sell root beer floats Friday afternoons for an end of the week pick me up – or any other fun snacks!